

A woman wearing a white short-sleeved shirt and a patterned blue and white skirt is kneeling in a dry, grassy field. She is wearing a red and white patterned headscarf. To her right is a rectangular chalkboard with a wooden frame. The chalkboard has handwritten text in white chalk. The background consists of dry, yellowish-brown grass and some bare tree trunks. A large, light-colored log lies on the ground in the foreground to the right of the chalkboard. A white bowl is partially visible behind the chalkboard.
